CANCELLATION INSURANCE

Cancellation

Guests who take out cancellation insurance have the right to cancel the arrangement as outlined below. The insurance will compensate the guest for cancellation costs if it is reasonable that the guest must cancel his booking because the guest, a close relative or travelling companion:

- suffers an acute illness, an accident or death
- is drafted into the army or civil defence unit
- has initiated divorce proceedings
- suffers a fire, water damage or burglary at his or her home or business
- is made redundant (does not apply to general notice of redundancies)
- suffers an unforeseen breakdown while travelling by car, train or bus to the arrangement destination, and 25% or at least 24 hours of the arrangement cannot be used.

Up until 21 days prior to arrival, it is also possible to cancel accommodation without specifying a reason.

Price guarantee

Price guarantee means that if the guest can find equivalent accommodation at a lower price after having paid for the booking, the guest will be refunded the difference, provided that the guest contacts SkiStar in this respect. When assessing whether accommodation is equivalent, we consider location, size and standard, among other things. The price guarantee is valid until 42 days before arrival. The price guarantee cannot be combined with any changes in booking, campaigns or other discounts.

Rebooking

Rebooking means that the guest can rebook lodging for the same destination or another SkiStar destination no later than 21 days before arrival. Rebooking is subject to space availability and the applicable price list at the SkiStar destination as well as an administration fee of NOK 195.

The guest must be able to prove that he/she is prevented from taking the trip by producing a certificate, e.g. from a doctor, government agency or insurance company. SKISTAR'S SNOW GUARANTEE

In addition to the above-mentioned cancellation rules, SkiStar has a snow guarantee. This means that if the destination does not meet the requirements for its snow guarantee, the guest can opt not to travel to the booked destination. The guest will then be refunded the amount that was paid for the arrangement. The snow guarantee takes effect when the skiing portion of the arrangement cannot be provided as described below. The snow guarantee does not apply to temporary lift or slope closures resulting from technical problems or inclement weather. For more information about current snow status and the dates that apply to each destination snow guarantee see www.skistar.com

SKISTAR'S CHANGES AND THE GUEST'S RIGHTS ETC. SkiStar may change the terms and conditions for the arrangement as long as the guest can be offered equivalent alternative services.

If SkiStar's costs are increased after the agreement has become binding for the parties, SkiStar is entitled to increase the price of the arrangement by an amount equivalent to the cost increase if the cost increase is the result of changes in taxation or other fees for services included in the arrangement. The price may not be increased in the last 20 days prior to arrival and the Guest must be informed immediately in the event of a price increase. The arrangement's price must be reduced if SkiStar's costs, at least 20 days before arrival, are reduced for the same reasons as stated above. The journey's departure time stated at the time the agreement is entered into is provisional. If the final departure time differs from the provisional time, the guest must be informed as soon as possible and no later than 14 days before departure. Unless notified otherwise the time stated in the booking confirmation or travel documents sent subsequently will apply. If the approximate departure time differs from the final time by more than 8 hours, the guest is entitled to withdraw from the agreement as described below.

If the arrangement cannot be provided according to the provisions in the booking confirmation and these terms and conditions, and SkiStar is unable to offer the guest equivalent alternative services, the guest is entitled to withdraw from the agreement. The guest also has the right to withdraw from the agreement if the terms and conditions are changed significantly to the detriment of the guest. SkiStar must then refund the full amount paid, less an amount for any portion of the arrangement already received by the Guest. In order for the guest to be entitled to withdraw from the agreement, the guest must inform SkiStar of this intention as soon as possible and no later than 11 a.m. the day after arrival. Problems that arise during the guest's stay must be reported within a reasonable time during the stay by the guest so that SkiStar has an opportunity to rectify the situation. If the guest did not report any defects or inadequacies to the relevant personnel on site and SkiStar, therefore, did not have the opportunity to assist, the guest will not be entitled to compensation according to practice and our booking terms and conditions.

SkiStar's responsibility, if any, to pay damages for deficiencies during the stay or for cancellation of the trip by SkiStar ceases to exist if SkiStar can prove that the arrangement could not be provided or the deficiency arose due to circumstances beyond SkiStar's control that SkiStar could not reasonably have anticipated when the agreement was entered into and the consequences of which SkiStar cannot reasonably have avoided or overcome, for example brief disruption of IT services, TV-signal, water or electricity supply.

The guest has the right to replace himself with another person and SkiStar must approve that person unless there are particular reasons not to do so. One such reason could be, for example, that the company providing transportation or another company used by SkiStar must approve the passenger exchange. The guest must provide information about the exchange at least 5 days before departure or the home journey. If changes are made to bookings, SkiStar is entitled to levy an administration fee of NOK 195. If the agreement is transferred, the party transferring the agreement and the party acquiring it are jointly responsible to SkiStar for the outstanding payment for the arrangement and for any extra costs incurred in connection with the transfer.

WHAT ARE THE GUEST'S RESPONSIBILITIES?

To book/conclude an agreement with SkiStar in respect of lodging, the guest must be aged 18 or over. All staying guests must be aged 18 or over to stay in the lodging. The age limit does NOT refer to children in companion with guardian. Satisfying the age limit is a requirement to gain access to the lodging. Proof of identity must be provided on arrival. If the guest does not satisfy the age limit when accessing the lodging, the cancellation rules apply. In the case of organized groups and travel parties with a leader exceptions may be made to the above regulations by agreement with SkiStar.

Guests must follow the rules of conduct, instructions and stipulations that apply for travel, lodging, skiing etc. Between the hours of 11 p.m. and 7 a.m. the guest must show the utmost consideration and not disturb other guests. The guest is fully responsible for any damage to the lodging and its contents if the guest, or another person with access to the lodging, behaves in a negligent or careless manner. If the no smoking or no pets rules are broken, a cleaning cost of NOK 6,000 will be payable by the guest. The guest is not permitted to use the lodging for any purpose other than the one agreed upon at the time the booking was made (normally recreational purposes) and is not permitted to allow more people to stay overnight in the lodging or put up a tent, caravan, music system, bath tub, etc. on the property. The guest must clean thoroughly before the home journey, following the cleaning instructions. If these rules are not observed, SkiStar will debit a fee of NOK 1,500 or more (depending on the size of the lodging).

All keys to the lodging must be submitted before the home journey. Failure to do so will result in a charge of at least NOK 2,000 to change the locks. The Guest can book end-of-stay cleaning prior to arrival. Booked or obligatory cleaning does not include basic cleaning inside and out, washing dishes or emptying rubbish/removal of empty bottles.

SkiStar has the right to cancel the agreement with immediate effect if the guest or any person in the guest's party behaves in a disorderly manner and/or causes damage to the lodging or the surrounding area, or if the lodging is used for a purpose other than the intended one. If the agreement is cancelled, the guest and those in his/her party must immediately move out of the lodging and no refund will be payable. In the case of an immediate cancellation of the agreement for the above-mentioned reasons, SkiStar will debit the guest for the costs of the damage (a minimum of NOK 5,000). In the event of immediate notice of termination of the agreement, SkiStar reserves the right to be able to close the lodging and remove the guest's property.

SkiStar must provide the guest with the relevant information about passports and visas for countries within the European Economic Area (EEA). The guest is, however, responsible for taking care of the necessary formalities for the trip. For information, see www.skistar.com or contact SkiStar.

WHAT HAPPENS IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE?

The guest should contact SkiStar with any complaints. If the guest and SkiStar cannot reach agreement, the matter can be referred to the Norwegian National Board for Consumer Complaints or a general court of law.

WAR, NATURAL DISASTERS, INDUSTRIAL ACTION, ETC.

Both parties have the right to withdraw from the agreement if the arrangement cannot be provided due to an act of war, natural disaster, industrial conflict, prolonged interruption in the water or energy supply, fire or other similar significant event that neither of the parties could have predicted or influenced.

OTHER

The relevant check-in and check-out times are indicated in the booking confirmation. The price of lodging does not include cleaning, bed linens, towels, coats/high chairs, toilet paper, cleaning supplies, etc. unless otherwise stated in the booking confirmation. Remember to bring the supplies you need for your stay. SkiStar's lodging where it is not allowed to smoke or bring pets is not sanctioned for allergic persons.

SkiStar accepts no responsibility for items left behind.
