If the Arrangement cannot be provided according to the Booking Confirmation and these terms and conditions, and SkiStar is unable to offer the Guest equivalent alternative services, the Guest is entitled to withdraw from the agreement. The Guest also has the right to withdraw from the agreement if the terms and conditions are changed significantly to the detriment of the Guest. SkiStar shall then refund the full amount paid, less an amount for any portion of the Arrangement already received by the Guest. In order for the Guest to be entitled to withdraw from the agreement, the Guest shall inform SkiStar of this intention as soon as possible. Problems that arise during the Guest's stay shall be reported within a reasonable time during the stay by the Guest so that SkiStar has an opportunity to rectify the situation. If the Guest did not report any defects or inadequacies to the relevant personnel on site and SkiStar therefore did not have the opportunity to rectify the situation, the Guest will not be entitled to a discount or compensation in accordance with customary practice and our booking terms.

7.2 Right to rectification, discount and compensation

If the Arrangement is not provided in accordance with the agreement, SkiStar must rectify the defect within a reasonable time. However, SkiStar is not responsible for rectifying defects if it is impossible or if the cost of rectification would be disproportionate. If SkiStar fails to rectify the defect, the Guest may be entitled to a discount and compensation. The Guest is not entitled to a discount and/or compensation for defects during the stay (including, but not limited to, Service Disruptions) or cancellation of the trip by SkiStar, if SkiStar can prove that the trip could not have gone ahead or the defect was caused by impediments or circumstances beyond SkiStar's control, which SkiStar could not reasonably have anticipated when entering into the agreement and the consequences of which SkiStar could not reasonably have avoided or overcome, such as temporary loss of IT services, TV signal, water or energy supply.

Compensation for any claims for damage covered by the provisions of the Norwegian Maritime Act, the Air Traffic Act, the Railway Act or other transport laws will be limited to the amounts indicated in those laws at the time the damage occurred. It is the responsibility of the Guest to limit any damage as far as possible.

7.3 Specific provisions for the SkiPass

In accordance with current trade regulations from SLAO (see link in paragraph 1), the Guest is entitled to a price reduction in respect of SkiPass and/or damages for disruptions only provided that:

1. the limited availability lasted for more than 1/3 of the period of validity of the SkiPass, and
2. the limited availability covers more than 2/3 of the ski area under normal conditions.

Refunds for Service Disruptions shall correspond to 50% of that part of the validity period of the SkiPass that could not be used.

For example, if the Guest was unable to cross one or more national borders (Sweden, Norway) and therefore could not use SkiStar All at SkiStar's destinations abroad, the Guest cannot claim a price reduction or a refund of SkiStar All where such travel restrictions or other reasons are beyond SkiStar's control. This is because SkiStar All can be used at all SkiStar's destinations in the country where the Guest bought the pass.

7.4 Specific provisions for Activities

Guests and Travelling Companions must comply with the safety rules issued by SkiStar on site for a particular Activity. The Guest who books the Activity for Travelling Companions is responsible for ensuring that they are also aware of and comply with those safety rules. A medical certificate and ERV Skier- and activity Insurance must be provided to obtain a refund for cancellation due to illness or injury during the hire period (not applicable to children under 6).

7.6 The Guest's right to transfer the agreement

The Guest has the right to replace himself with another person and SkiStar shall approve that person unless there are particular reasons not to do so. One such reason could be that the exchange of traveller must be approved by the transport company or another company used by SkiStar. The Guest must notify SkiStar of the exchange at least 5 days before Departure. If changes are made to bookings, SkiStar is entitled to charge a reasonable fee to cover costs and must also show how the cost has been calculated. If the agreement is transferred, the party transferring the agreement and the party acquiring it are jointly responsible to SkiStar for the outstanding payment for the Arrangement and for any extra costs incurred in connection with the transfer.

7.7 The Guest's obligations, etc.

In order to enter into an agreement with SkiStar in respect of lodging and/or insurance, the Guest shall be aged 18 or over. All members of the group staying in the accommodation must be aged 18 or over. Guests must satisfy the age requirement for entry to the accommodation. Identification will be checked. If the Guest does not satisfy the age requirement on entering the accommodation, the cancellation rules in paragraph 3 apply. The age limit does not apply to children accompanied by a guardian. When booking accommodation, a bed is obligatory for children over three years of age. Exceptions to the above rules may be made for organised groups and travel parties by agreement with SkiStar.

Guests can log in to My Page at www.skistar.com or the SkiStar app to find current information on checking in and out.

Guests and all Travelling Companions must follow the code of conduct, safety rules, instructions and provisions issued to them for travel, accommodation and other products/services included in the Arrangement and must also follow the ALF's general industry regulations, including the skiing rules (see link in paragraph 1). Instructions include, for example, instructions issued on site concerning open/closed slopes, opening times, special rules for night skiing and safety rules for each Activity. SkiStar is not liable for any damage that may be caused by Guests failing to follow these instructions, for example skiing outside marked slopes or breaking the safety rules.

Between 11 pm and 7 am, Guests and all Travelling Companions must show the greatest consideration and avoid disturbing other guests. Guests must also show respect for each other at all other times of day. Disturbances will be dealt with in consultation with the concierge. Guests will be fined for the disturbance regardless of the time of day. The fine is SEK 1 500-SEK 5 000 per disturbance, depending on its nature and severity. This is assessed in consultation with the concierge. Hotels may have different codes of conduct and Guests will be notified of these when they check in. The Guest is fully responsible for any damage to the lodging and its furniture. If the no smoking or no pets rules are violated, a cleaning cost of at least NOK 6,000 will be charged. The Guest may not use the lodging for any purpose other than the one agreed upon at the time the booking was made. The Guest is also not permitted to allow more people to stay overnight in the lodging or put up a tent, caravan, bath tub, music system or similar on any plot belonging to the lodging.

SkiStar lodging where it is not allowed to smoke or bring pets is not sanitised to cater for allergy sufferers. The price of lodging does not include cleaning, bed linens, towels, cots/high chairs, toilet paper, cleaning supplies, etc. unless otherwise stated in the Booking Confirmation. If departure cleaning has not been booked, the Guest shall clean the property before Departure in accordance with the cleaning instructions. If these rules are not observed, SkiStar will debit a fee of NOK 1,500 or more (depending on the size of the lodging). The Guest can book end-of-stay cleaning prior to Arrival. Booked or obligatory cleaning does not include basic cleaning inside and out, washing dishes or emptying rubbish/removal of empty bottles. SkiStar is not responsible for items left behind.

When staying in a cabin/apartment the Guest is responsible for ensuring that snow is removed and/or slippery conditions in direct connection to the lodging are dealt with during the entire period of stay. The Guest may only charge electric vehicles at a designated charging point. SkiStar may charge the Guest SEK 5 000 for behaviour which may cause a fire risk. SkiStar is entitled to disconnect the Guest's electricity cable if it is used to charge electric vehicles outside the designated charging bays.

All keys and/or key cards to the accommodation must be returned on departure. Failure to do so will result in a charge of at least NOK 2,000 for changing and/or recoding locks and NOK 200 for lost key cards.

SkiStar has the right to cancel the agreement with immediate effect if the Guest or any person in the Guest's party behaves in a disorderly manner and/or causes damage to the lodging or the surrounding area, or if the lodging is used for a purpose other than those intended. If the agreement is cancelled under this provision, the Guest and those in his/her party shall immediately move out of the lodging and no refund will be paid for the lodging price. SkiStar is also entitled to levy the Guest a cost equivalent to the damage, but at least NOK 5,000. This means that the Guest is subject to the applicable rules for package tours, which are contained in the Norwegian Package Act, LOV-2018-06-15-32 June (Package Act). SkiStar will take on the full responsibility for ensuring that the package tour as a whole is provided correctly. SkiStar also has a duty by law to refund payments made by the Guest and, where transport is included in the package tour, ensure the Guest's repatriation if SkiStar becomes insolvent.

The Guest shall receive all essential information about the package tour before concluding a package tour contract.

There is always at least one trader who is liable for the proper performance of all the travel services included in the contract.

The Guest will be given an emergency telephone number or details of a contact paragraph where they can get in touch with the Organiser or the travel agent.

The Guest may transfer the package tour to another person, upon reasonable notice and possibly subject to additional costs.

The price of the package tour may only be increased if specific costs rise (e.g. fuel prices), and if expressly provided for in the contract, and in any event not later than 20 days before the start of the package tour. If the price increase exceeds 8% of the price of the package tour, the traveller may terminate the contract. If the Organiser reserves the right to a price increase, the traveller has a right to a price reduction if there is a decrease in the relevant costs.

The Guest may terminate the contract without paying any termination fee and receive a full refund of any payments if any of the essential elements of the package tour, other than the price, are changed significantly. If the trader responsible for the package tour cancels the package tour before it starts, the Guest is entitled to a refund and compensation where appropriate.

The Guest may terminate the contract without paying any termination fee before the start of the package tour in the event of exceptional circumstances, for instance if there are serious security problems at the destination which are likely to affect the package tour.

The Guest may terminate the contract at any time before the start of the package tour in return for an appropriate and justifiable termination fee.

If, after the start of the package tour, significant parts of the package tour cannot be provided as agreed, suitable alternative arrangements must be offered at no extra cost. The Guest may terminate the contract without paying any termination fee, where services are not performed in accordance with the contract and this substantially affects the performance of the package tour and the Organiser fails to remedy the problem.

The Guest is also entitled to a reduction in price and/or damages if the travel services are not provided or are improperly provided.

The Organiser must provide assistance if the Guest is in difficulty.

If the Organiser becomes insolvent, payments will be refunded. If the Organiser becomes insolvent after the start of the package tour and if transport is included in the package tour, the Guest's repatriation is secured by the guarantee.
